

SJV JOB OPENING FOR YOUTH MINISTER

Title: Youth Minister
Reports to: Pastor
Grade/Job Code: Exempt

The mission of the Catholic Archdiocese of Washington is to spread the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world. In the faithful pursuit of this mission, St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Prince Frederick, MD is seeking a part-time Youth Minister (16 hours per week).

Position Summary

The Youth Minister must be a practicing Roman Catholic who is faithful to the magisterium of the Church. This individual must be a leader who can bring others into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. The Youth Minister coordinates the outreach to and evangelization of the youth and have experience in Faith Formation. This position will initially focus on the high school youth and build on from there.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Plan, develop and implement a balanced youth ministry in the areas of group building, worship, discipleship, mission and outreach.
- Coordinate youth gatherings for a High School program and eventually a Middle School program.
- Coordinate and participate in the high school youth trip to Catholic Heart Work Camp.
- Coordinate the recruitment, training and evaluating of volunteers.
- Coordinate the outreach to the young people in the parish.
- Work with the Director of Religious Education to form cohesive youth outreach and formation.
- Generate calendar and balance social/catechetical/prayer aspects of youth ministry.
- Understand, accept and implement the youth ministry goals of the parish.
- Provide support, opportunities for networking and resource ideas for parish staff and volunteer leaders working in youth ministry.
- Consult with Pastor to develop and sustain effective ministry to youth and young adults in parochial settings.
- Plan and provide training opportunities for young adult leaders.

Qualifications

Required Education and Experience

- Catechetical background and training through Archdiocesan certification process, college degree and/or experience in youth ministry/religious education
- Compliance with all requirements for employment in the Archdiocese of Washington

Interested applicants should submit a resume to Father Daniel B. Carson at pastor@sjvchurch.net